

I listen to XM satellite radio and feel it provides a valuable service which is not available to me otherwise. Since I pay for this service, they should be allowed to brocast what they want without the national association of broadcasters dictating what they can air. I would urge you to reject NAB's petition 04-160.

Thank you,

Brian H. Arnett